

ART 104: Introduction to Printmaking

An introductory printmaking course that is designed for studio experience. This course deals with projects as well as written exams that allows students to demonstrate an understanding of the multiple facets of printmaking. Hands on experience in screen- printing, monotype, intaglio, and relief printmaking will be covered.

Credits: 3