

CULN 115: Menu Merchandising

A study of the factors involved in planning effective menus for a variety of food service operations. The course includes the design, format, selection, costing, pricing, and a balance of menu items based on an understanding of the needs of various target markets.

Credits: 2

Program: Culinary Arts