

ED 283: Family-Professional Partnerships in Education

Partnership in Education focuses on the skills necessary for working effectively with families of diverse students including those with disabilities. Instruction will include family system theory; characteristics/functions of families; relevant law and policy such as the Individuals with Disabilities in Education Act (IDEA) and requirements for family participation; strategies for communication and collaboration with diverse families.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites: Placement in ENG 100 or Instructor consent

Program: Education

Recommended Prep: Interest in the field of teacher education and experience with children.