

GEO 101: The Natural Environment

This course explores Earth's natural systems including the atmosphere, lithosphere, biosphere, and hydrosphere. Basic elements of the natural environment are examined, especially climate, soils, landforms, water and natural vegetation. Global and local environmental processes are explored with an emphasis on Hawai'i and the Pacific. (Formerly GEOG 101)

Credits: 3

Recommended Prep: MATH 82X, Placement in ENG 100