

HIST 260: Twentieth Century World History

This course covers the major individuals and political, economic, social, and cultural events of the world during the twentieth century. Emphasis will be placed on global relationships, conflict, and changing patterns of interaction among cultures and peoples in an era of near-constant change.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites: ENG 22, ESL 22 or ENG 24 with a grade of CR or higher or consent of instructor.

Recommended Prep: HIST 152