

PACS 108: Pacific Worlds: an Introduction to Pacific Islands Studies

Introduces students to the geography, societies, histories, cultures, contemporary issues, and arts of Oceania, including Hawai'i. Combines lecture and discussion that emphasize Pacific Islander perspectives and experiences.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites: ENG 22 or ENG 24 with a grade of CR or placement in ENG 100 or consent of instructor.