

SOC 231: Introduction to Juvenile Delinquency

This course focuses on juvenile delinquency in the U.S. and examines: the nature of and trends in juvenile delinquency; explanations for and theories of juvenile delinquency; and institutional responses to and treatment of juvenile delinquency including discussion of the U.S. juvenile justice system.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites: Placement in ENG 100 or equivalent or Instructor consent