

Linguistics (LING)

LING 102: Introduction to the Study of Language

An investigation of the nature and workings of language: its composition (sound system, grammatical structure, and lexicon); representation (oral and written); and divergence (relationships between languages of the world). General linguistic principles applicable to all languages will be covered.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites: ENG 22 or ENG 24 with a grade of C or better, or consent of the Language Arts Division.